Rogue Hearts Series

When her parents and twin brother die within weeks of each other, Alicia and her younger sister are left in the hands of an uncle who has brought them all to financial and social ruin. Desperate to save her family from debtor's prison, Alicia vows to marry the first wealthy man to propose. She meets the dashing Lord Amesbury, and her heart whispers that this is the man she is destined to love. However, his tainted past may forever stand in their way. Her choices of potential husbands narrow to either a scarred cripple with the heart of a poet or a handsome rake with a deadly secret.

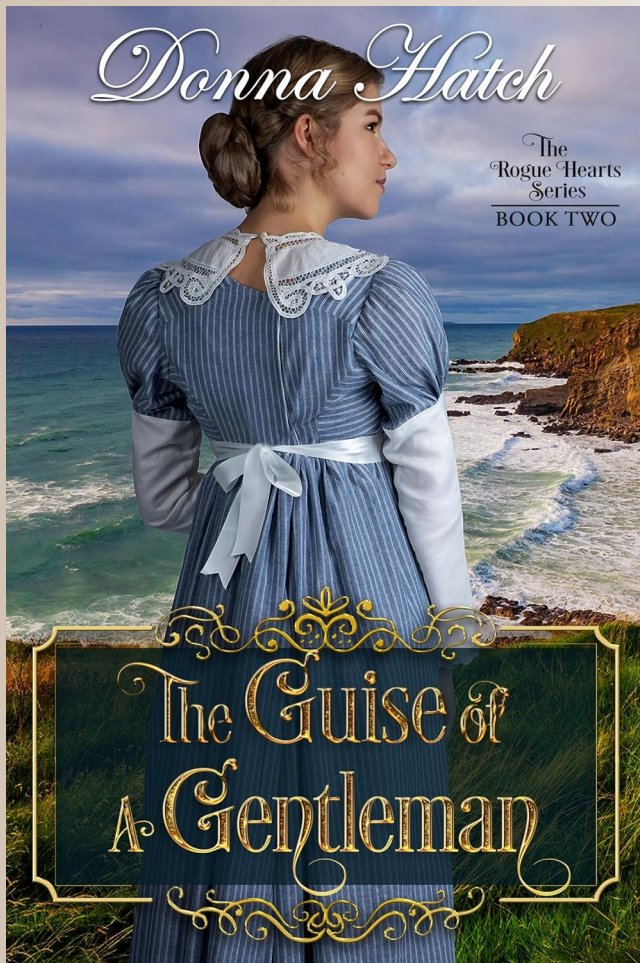

Cole Amesbury is tormented by his own ghosts and believes he is beyond redemption. Yet, he cannot deny his attraction to the girl whose genuine goodness touches the heart he'd long thought was dead. He fears the scars in his soul cut so deeply that he may never be able to offer Alicia a love that is true. When another bizarre mishap threatens her life, Cole suspects that the seemingly unrelated accidents are actually a killer's attempt to exterminate every member of Alicia's family.

Despite the threat looming over her, learning to love the stranger she married may pose the greatest danger to her heart. And Cole must protect Alicia from the killer before he strikes again.

A PERFECT MATCH--Genevieve Marshall can't wait to meet the paragon of a gentleman that her dearest friend vows to marry, and to determine if he's good enough for her friend. After meeting the object of her friend's desire, Genevieve determines Christian is perfect....for her. Torn between loyalty to her best friend and the yearnings of her heart, she must first escape the attention of a powerful lord whose obsession with her may rob her of any hope for happily ever after.

A PERFECT SECRET--Everything has gone wrong. Desperate to protect her father from trial and execution, Genevieve broke off her engagement with Christian Amesbury to marry a black-mailer. After a year of marriage, she flees her husband's violent domination only to have fate bring her back to Christian. But Christian's hurt and bitterness over her betrayal puts a wall between them. He vows to help her, but not to forgive. Just when she starts a new life of safety and freedom, her husband tracks her down, stalks her, and threatens everyone she loves. Still broken-hearted over Genevieve's betrayal a year ago, Christian can't believe she's come back into his life--and worse, on the anniversary of his brother's death, a tragedy that haunts him. Though tempted to throw her back into the river where he found her, he can't leave her at the mercy of the terrifying man she married. When her husband torments Genevieve and puts both their families in danger, Christian will do anything to protect those he loves...anything except give Genevieve another chance to break his heart.

The Courting Series

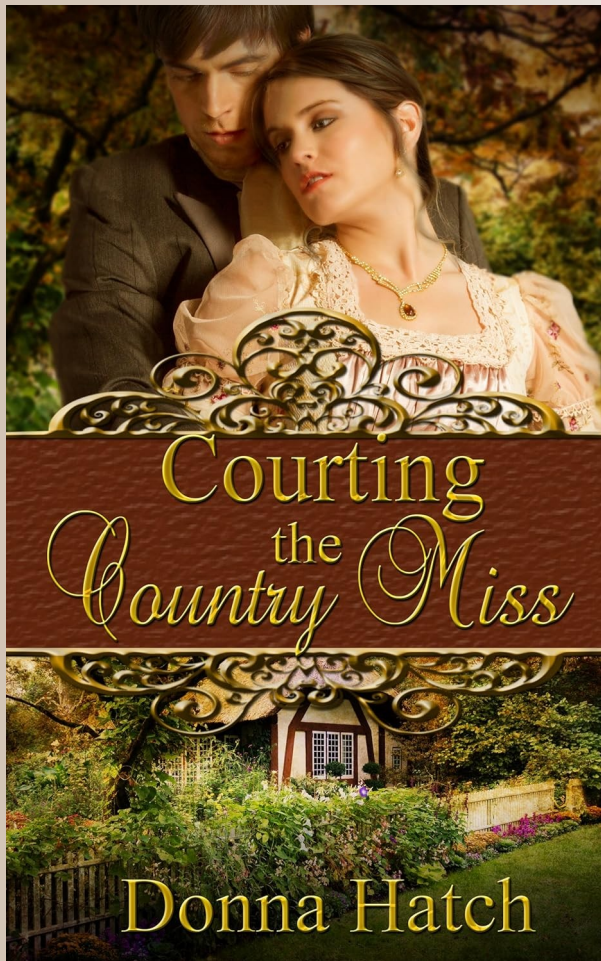

When charming rake Tristan Barrett sweeps Lady Elizabeth off her feet, stealing both her heart and a kiss in a secluded garden, her brother challenges Tristan to a duel. The only way to save her brother and Tristan from harm—not to mention preserve her reputation—is to get married. But her father, the Duke of Pemberton, refuses to allow his daughter to marry anyone but a titled lord. The duke demands that Elizabeth marry Tristan’s older brother, Richard, the Earl of Averston. Now Elizabeth must give up Tristan to marry a man who despises her, a man who loves another, a man she’ll never love.

Richard fears Elizabeth is as untrustworthy as his mother, who ran off with another man. However, to protect his brother from a duel and their family name from further scandal, he agrees to the wedding, certain his new bride will betray him. Yet when Elizabeth turns his house upside down and worms her way into his reluctant heart, Richard suspects he can’t live without his new countess. Will she stay with him or is it too little, too late?

The Courting Series

Cynical and broken-hearted, Leticia banishes dreams of marriage. When her childhood friend, Tristan, wagers he can find her the perfect husband, she hopes the challenge will coax him to forgo his devil-may-care lifestyle. Meanwhile, Leticia throws herself into forming her charity school but meets opposition—even from the people she’s helping.

Guilt-ridden that his past mistakes robbed Leticia of true love, Tristan vows to set it right, but match-making has its pitfalls for a repentant scoundrel. When he finds two ‘perfect’ gentlemen to court her, he discovers his own deep feelings for the lady.

Though Tristan seems to reform, Leticia doesn’t dare risk heartbreak with a notorious rake. When opposition for the school takes a deadly turn, can Tristan protect her from a madman bent on destroying their dreams and their lives?

The Music of the Heart Series

Gently bred young ladies don't run away from home to find employment, but when forced to choose between marrying a brutish oaf or becoming another man's mistress, Susanna makes an unconventional decision. Following her passion for music, she flees to London with dreams of securing a position as a harpist. Becoming entangled with a handsome violinist who calls himself Kit, but who seems too aristocratic for a working-class musician, may be more problematic than sleeping in the streets.

Kit's attention is captured by Susanna's breath-taking talent, admirable grace, and winsome smiles...until a lawman exposes the new harpist as a runaway bride and a thief. With peril lurking in the shadows, Susanna's imminent danger not only forces Kit to choose between his better judgment and his heart, but he must also embrace the life to which he swore he would never return.

Dance with a duke, outwit pirates, save a kingdom, and fall in love. Believe in happily ever after.

Novellas and Short Stories

The scandalous Lady Amelia Dasherwood would rather thumb her nose at the society who shunned her for getting a divorce, but must now face those who rejected her in order to solicit aid for a forgotten orphanage dear to her.

Newly returned from the horrors of war, Dr. Reed St. Ives plans to make a new life as a country doctor and forget Amelia ever existed --after all, she broke his heart when she married another man. Yet she keeps invading his thoughts and showing up when he least expects her. If only he could find a cure for his own heart.

When fate reunites them, the last thing they want is to face the heartbreak that tore them apart years ago. Amelia must choose between honoring her family's wishes to deny her love again, or declaring herself and risking Reed's rejection. Placing her heart at his feet would take the most courage of all.

Fantasy

Rumors of war hang over Princess Jeniah's peaceful country of Arden, a land that shuns both magic and warfare. Following a lifelong dream, Jeniah forms a telepathic bond with a revered creature called a chayim, who is prophesied to save her kingdom. But when a Darborian knight comes upon Jeniah with her chayim, he sees only a vicious monster about to devour a maiden, and he slays the beast. Devastated by the loss of her chayim, and fearing that her own magic is evil, Jeniah doubts her destiny. When an enemy invades Arden City, they slaughter the people, storm the castle, and execute the entire royal family except the princess. Rescued by the knight who slew her chayim, Jeniah is now heir to the throne of Arden and the only hope for freeing her people from tyranny. On the run and hunted by enemy soldiers, Jeniah must place her life and the fate of her kingdom in the hands of this trained killer. Torn between embracing her destiny as queen of Arden, and her love for a mere knight, she must ultimately rely on her magic to save herself and her people from death and tyranny.
