From Democracy to Democracy

Vladimir Putin intends to destroy U.S. democracy from within – and he is succeeding. For Putin, the Cold War did not end – it has continued to this day. He blames the U.S. for the breakup of the Soviet Union. In 1997, a book was published in Russia titled The Foundations of Geopolitics. It clearly outlines the presidential goals of Vladimir Putin. High on this list is the destruction of the U.S. government and democracy. He also wishes to return the world-order to pre-NATO time, which includes the annihilation of Ukraine and a list of other now European countries.

The tools used to achieve Putin's goals include U.S. racism, hatred, violence, insurrection, antisemitism, cyberattacks, inflation, isolationism, and propaganda. His allies in this task have been Donald Trump and more recently Elon Musk.

This book tells the story of an American woman living in six different dictator-led countries over a period of twenty years – mostly Russia. This storyline weaves an alarming candidness behind botched U.S. intelligence and the unfolding putrescence of the U.S. Government including the vigorous annihilation of the U.S. democracy.
